OF A PROLETARIAT DICTATORSHIP HERE

Soviet "Envoy" Cables Russia for More Money, Senate Committee Learns.

WASHINGTON, Feb. E.-Lulwig C. A. K. Martens, Russian Soviet "Agent" in the United States, told the Senate Investigating Committee to-day that he would like to see the "dietatorship of the proletarist" set up here. "That is what I wish," he maid, "not what I am working for." He was given permission to qualify his statement made at a previous muion that he was a revolutionist in the United States. "I meant," he mid, "that I have always worked for the revolution in Russia, not else-

Wade Ellis, examiner for the cominittee, asked if a Lieut. Col. Beck was on the Soviet Bureau staff in New York, listed as "military attache." Martens identified him, and Mr. Ellis introduced a report signed by Beck, made by British military authorities, outlining a plan of military operatons against the Boisbeviki in Russia. "He loss changed his views," Martens said.

"You know this man betrayed his use when he came over to you?" Mr. Edis asked. "I know Col. Beck is from the mainland. an honest man, and I don't mind his The fire hoat Cornelius Lawrence honest change of opinion." Martense had to drill its way through ice floes said, adding that Col. Beck was receiving $250 a month as "military attache." "We have many first class men of the old regime serving the around the inland. the United States," the letter said.

Mr. Ellis asked if this statement was intended to "promote friendly relations between Russia and the United States." "The crimes for which many persons are given ten to affeen years in prison in this country," Martens replied, "would never be louched upon in Russia. "The penting," asid Mr. Ellis, "you shoet people in Russia who eppose the Government and welcome these who oppose the Government of the United States."
